Applicant's election with traverse of Group VI, claims 81-92, in the paper filed 23 August 2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that adequate reasons have not been provided to support patentable distinctness between the groups or a serious burden on the examiner. These are not found persuasive for the reasons of record because the explanations of different designs, modes of operation, functions, effects, scope, classifications, and fields of search made in the restriction requirement of record are sufficient to provide a prima facie showing of a serious burden upon the examiner.

This application contains new claims 93-102, similar to prior claims 71-80, directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: 26 different, patentably distinct, pairs of specific antigens for detection that differ in structure and use. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, the original claims 81-92 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 1641

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
